THE NEW REGISTRY LAW.

The bill introduced by Senator Taylor, of Beaver, to-day in the Senate, being the new Registry Law, is the act of the session, and will be supported by the Republican members of the Legislature. It embraces nearly all the provisions of the act of last year. It has been well considered by the legal talent of the State and will undoubtedly pass. The act is exciting much attention and the Democrats will oppose it. The substance of the bill is, that the election officers of Philadelphia meet on the second Thursday preceding the second Tuesday of October and the Presidential election, continuing in session from ten in the morning to seven in the evening, each secular day, until the evening of the following Tuesday. Outside of Philadelphia the election officers will meet the second Monday preceding the regular October and Presidential election, and continue in session from nine to seven o'clock of that and the following day. The revising board have due discretion as to striking off the dead. Naturalized voters at election may be questioned as to all facts on oath. On petition of fifty voters of the county or five in the district, the Court may appoint two sober officers of the opposite party as inspectors; and if unlawfully interfered with and the election contested, the votes may be rejected. The majority of return Judges may reject the returns, if fraudulent naturalization in open Court is proven. The naturalization code follows. The Prothonotary is deprived of office for negligence. All special acts are repealed.

This act will undoubtedly pass, as it is supported by the Republican members. It is argued that it is not in conflict with the Constitution.

New York State Canals—Meeting of Citizens of Buffalo.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, January 13.—An adjourned meeting of citizens and the Board of Trade, to take into consideration the canal interests of the State, was largely attended this morning. Resolutions were passed calling upon the Legislature to abolish the contract system and provide for repairs by the Superintendents or other responsible agents, so that the canals may be kept in navigable condition and rendered available for the increased demand of commerce; denouncing the past corrupt management; demanding reform, and that integrity, experience and undoubted capacity be the first requisite for appointment to office of the canals; also, that the Erie canal thoughout its whole length, from Buffalo and Oswego to Albany, and the Champlain canal, should be without delay repaired and completed to seven feet in depth and seventy feet in width and double locks substituted for the old bench walls; also that there be an early revision of the present toll, so as to retain, protect and increase the trade. A Committee of five was appointed to attend to the canal interests before the present Legislature.

WASHINGTON, January 12, 1869.

BANKS' PROTECTORATE BILL.

During the debate in the House on Banks' protectorate bill this afternoon Mr. Butler said the systems of government in the Antilles were crumbling to pieces and those islands going out of the possession of the present owners. They belonged to us so far by position and the laws of nature as to require the interposition of our Government officers. His substitute was carefully guarded, saying that intervention shall not be inconsistent with the laws of nations. The simple question was, in plain language, the plum is ripe and ready to all; shall we have our mouths open and ready to take it or shall we keep our mouths shut that it may fall into other hands. We should extend a helping hand to those who desire a government under the republican form.

Mr. Spalding believed it was the destiny of the American Government to extend over all the Continent and adjacent Islands, it was a mere question of time. He did not, however, say it was sound, national policy at this time to adopt any such a resolution, but if it should be adopted to any extent, then he would say open wide the policy, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Mr. Shellabarger opposed the original proposition and amendments for it was a declaration of war against somebody on the part of the United States.

Mr. Judd sympathized as honestly as any in their manifest destiny. He thought the influence of our principles should extend to other lands, but we should make it felt in a powerful form, for we do not know what instant we might be involved in a war for the acquisition of the territory. The House had not sufficient information to warrant them in acting on the resolution.

Mr. Robinson, in introducing his amendment, expressed the belief that Ireland would yet be a part of us. Her heart was here, and England would never have peace till Ireland was incorporated into our Union.

Mr. Delano said the resolution never had the sanction of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and expressed the opinion that it would be a glorious thing for filibusters in New York and Boston, who, it is stated, were advancing money to rebels in Hayti, if the Government of the United States should come to their relief, so in some form they get their money. He prayed the House to deliberate before they inaugurated a new policy. Wait until the people of these Islands come to us. Then we can protect them as part of ourselves.

Mr. Brooks, in a few remarks, said unless Ireland were included he wouldn't go into the protection business at all. She was a part and parcel of us, and half of our population had Irish blood in their veins.

Mr. Bingham opposed delegating power to the President to be used when he might deem it expedient to make war.

Mr. Butler explained that he didn't intend investing the President with such power.

Mr. Robinson again spoke of Ireland, which, with a fair field, will lick England any day.

Mr. Maynard supported the resolution. He was ready to extend our moral influence to St. Domingo or ony other island. He thought, however, the gentleman from New York had better bring in a separate proposition for Ireland.

Mr. Woodward believed we needed these lands for commercial purposes and favored their acquisition by honorable means, but wouldn't steel them, as this resolution proposed. This proposition for intervention would end in war. He moved to table the resolution and amendments, which was carried—one hundred and twenty-six against thirty-five, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Archer, Arnell, Ashley, (Nevada,) Axell, Bailey, Baker, Baldwin, Barnes, Barnum, Beaman, Beatty, Beck, Benjamin, Benton, Bingham, Bryden, Bryen, Broomall, Brooks, Bromwell, Buckland, Burr, Cake, Callis, Cary, Churchill, Clark, (Ohio,) Coburn, Coak, Corly, Cornell, Covode, Cullom, Delano, Dockery, Dodge, Eckley, Ela, Ferris, Field, Fox, Getz, Gloss, Gloss Benner, Gallady, Goss, Gravely, Griswold, Grover, Haight, Halsley, Harding, Hawkins, Heaton, Holeman, Hopkins, Hubbard, (West Va.,) Humphrey, Hunter, Jencks, Johnson, Jones, (N. THE CASES OF JEFF. DAVIS AND SURRATT.

In the criminal court this morning District Attorney Carrington called the attention of the Court, Judge Fisher, to the indictments against Jefferson Davis and Jno. H. Surratt, who are charged with engaging in the rebellion. He then read the following communication from the Attorney General:

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
January 26, 1868.

SIR: I enclose for your consideration a copy of the proclamation of general amnesty by the President of the United States, under date of the 25th of December instant. You will observe that by the terms of this proclamation there is extended, unconditionally and without reserve to all and every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insusrection or rebellion, a full pardon and amnesty for the offense of treason against the United States, or adhereing to their enemies during the late civil war. The object of my present communication is to authorize and instruct you in the furtherance of the purpose and effect of the general amnesty and pardon, to make an examination of the indictments pending in your district against any person or persons whomesoever, for the offense of treason against the United States or adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, in order that as early as you shall have proper opportunity you may enter a nol, pros. for the government upon such indictments. If upon such examination you should find any case where from the tenor of the indictment or the nature of the case as known to you, it should be doutful whether it falls within the embrace oft his general amnesty and pardon you will be so good as to report the same to me without delay, with such a statement of the indictment and case as may enable me to give you further instructions concerning the same. Very respectfully your obedient servant.

[Signed] WM. M. EVARTS.
Att'y General U. S.

Mr. Carrington said the Attorney General had the authority to instruct him, under the first section of the act of August, 1861, Twelfth Statutes at Large, page 285, which reads, "That the Attorney General of the United States be and is hereby charged with the general superintendence and direction of the attorneys and marshalls of all the districts of the United States and territories, as to the manner of discharging their respective duties; and the said District Attorneys and Marshalls are hereby required to report to the Attorney General an account of their official proceedings and the state and condition of their respective offices, in such time and manner as the Attorney General may direct." He therefore felt it to be his duty to obey these instructions, and would in view of them enter a nolle pros. in the case of indictment against Jeff Davis for treason, found by the Grand Jury, May 26, 1865, and also the indictment against John C. Breckinridge for treason, found on the same date, the indictment against Jno. H. Surratt, found June 18th, 1866, charging him with engaging in the rebellion was somewhat different from the others, and he had concluded to make the same disposition, but, under the circumstances, he thought his duty would be to report it to the Attorney General.

Judge Fisher remarked it was clearly the duty of the District Attorney to rule a nolle pros in the two first cases, but under the circumstances, he could refer the 3d case.

THE INDIAN WAR—CAMANCHE VILLAGE DESTROYED.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF COLORED MEN.

To-day the delegates of the colored people from all the States in the Union, and of the States not admitted, assembled at Union League Hall. The room was densely crowd. About three hundred delegates were present and many spectators. Wm. Nesbit, of Pennsylvania, President of the late Border State Colored Convention, called the Convention to order to read the call. Hon. H. M. Turner, of Georgia, was called to the chair. During the absence of the Committee on Credentials, Rev. H. Garnett, of Pittsburgh, Principal of Avery College, addressed the Convention. Loud calls were made for Fred Douglass. He made a speech, which was listened to with attention and frequently applauded.

The Convention met again this evening at Israel church. Fred Douglass was elected permanent President, and one Vice President from each State and four Secretaries were elected, when the Convention adjourned until to-morrow.

VIRGINIA MATTERS.

The Conversative Virginia Convention met the Judiciary Committte of the Senate to-day and the interview is reported as having been cordial. The Virginia Committee confined itself to pointing out objections as they appeared to them to the pending Constitution. The Judiciary Committee requested these objections be reduced to writing for formal action. The Virginians seem confident of effecting their object which involves suffrage for colored men and amnesty for the whites.

GEORGIA CONTESTED CASE.

The Election Committee had the Georgia contested case before them to-day, and came, it is said, to the following conclusion: First—That Mr. Munney, who holds Governor Bullock's certificate, was not elected. Second—That Mr. Christy, who holds General Meade's certificate, was elected; but as the latter was ineligible, being unable to take the usual oath, the case was referred to the Reconstruction Committee, whether with any recommendation to remove his disabilities is unknown.

ANOTHER PETITION FOR PARDON.

A delegation composed of twelve citizens of Prince George county, Maryland, called on President Johnson this morning and presented a petition from the citizens of that county asking the pardon of Dr. Mudd. The President received their petition, and in response merely remarked that he would enclose it to the Attorney General for consideration by that official.

MISSISSIPPI RECONSTRUCTION QUESTION.

The Reconstruction Committee to-day resumed the consideration of the Mississippi question. They examined Fleming Hodges, A. Worley Patterson, Judge Fields and Capt. Fisher. Gen. Gillem, commanding the District of Mississippi, will be examined to-morrow.

The Conference on the Eastern Question—Exclusion of the Grecian Ambassador—Threatened Break Up—Claimant to the Spanish Throne—Bismarck and Baron Von Beust.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TURKEY AND GREECE.

PARIS, January 13.—It is stated to-day that Rangabe, present Ambassador at Paris from Greece, has been recalled to replace Bulgarias as president of the Ministry.

PARIS, January 13.—The official journal reports that the Conference on the Eastern question held a brief session yesterday, and adjourned until Thursday next. Mr. Raugabe, the Grecian Minister was not present. The conduct of the Greek Government in taking exception to the exclusion of its representative from Conference, is condemned for the argument. Greece assented to the propriety of a similar exclusion from Congress of 1856, although the sublime Porte was then represented in that body, and this is held as a precedent for the action of the present Conference.

VIENNA, January 13.—A circular from the Sublime Porte to the European powers, justifying its recent action against Greece, is published here. It says the Turkish Government does not expect that the Conference at Paris will arrive at any settlement. The ultimatum sent to Greece was a declaration that the internal affairs of the Ottoman Empire must not be interfered with.

LONDON, January 13.—Reports of the capture by the Turkish forces of members of the Cretan insurrectionists' government are confirmed. Four of the Cretan officials were killed and the rest taken prisoners. The books and documents of the government fell into the hands of the Turks.

PARIS, January 13.—Evening.—The exclusion of the Grecian Ambassador threatens to break up the Conference. It is not considered probable that the Greek government will acquiesce, and its reply to the demand of its representative for instructions is not likely to prove favorable, in which case the Conference will in all probability adjourn indefinitely. In the meantime, plenipotentiaries have applied to their governments for further instructions. It is understood Russia condemns the attitude which Greece has assumed toward the Conference.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, January 13.—The police were recently informed that there was a secret deposit of arms in a house on Cormen street. They proceeded to the spot and found two hundred carbines and revolvers and other weapons, together with ammunition, &c. On attempting to take possession of the arms they were fired into by the populace. A policeman and soldier were killed and two Celadors wounded, one mortally. The arms were finally taken away and quiet restored. The person who led the attack on the police has been arrested.

A steamer has arrived from Santiago de Cuba with important news. According to dispatches received by the Government Villa Calvo has been retaken by the Spanish troops. Official accounts also represent that Count Valmazeda defeated the rebels at Sibancion Caseorro and Guaimaro. He then marched into Tanas and effected a junction with the forces of Colonel Lone. The united forces had commenced to advance on Bayamo.

A report from Mazanillo declares that Valmazeda has actually captured Bayaneo. It is also reported that the revolutionary chieftains Eespedes and Aguilera were in the vicinity of Mazanillo, and had offered to surrender to Valmazeda on the condition that their present rank in the Spanish army be guaranteed them.

This account is discredited as incompatible with the reputed character of the men, and it is deemed improbable their companions would permit such an action.

The official report of affairs in the interior are flatly contradicted by advices privately received by the friends of the Insurgents in this city. It is also denied that Valmazeda had captured Bayama, but is maintained, on the contrary, that he has been defeated with the loss of many men and a part of his artillery and baggage train. The next steamer from San Diego will bring fuller particulars, and is anxiously looked for.

HAVANA, January 12.—Dates from Neuvitas to the 10th have been received. Count Valmuseda was unable to reach Sitaneon and was surrounded and had been pressed by the insurgants. A portion of the Matansas volunteers have gone over to the rebels. It is reported the troops are returning and are destroying buildings and plantations on their line of march. Arms are frequently landed for the insurgents.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, January 13.—A meeting of the Chicago Bar was held this morning to hear the report of the Committee appointed to investigate the cause of late Judge Tyler's death. Judge Van Buren, Chairman of the Committee, related that on the 15th ult., while defending a client in Justice Wilkins' office, the late Judge was ordered to sit down, and not obeying immediately the Justice fined him for contempt and ordered policemen to eject him, which they did in so violent a manner as to inflict injuries on the venerable Judge which superinduced his death. This statement was obtained by the Committee from witnesses. Several members of the bar denounced the Police Court transaction and testified to Judge Tyler's sobriety and legal experience. A Committee of three was appointed to report to-morrow morning what action the bar should take in the matter.

At the rolling mills, last night, Andrew McCuley, while in a fight, fell so that his head rested on a conduit from which steam was issuing. He died soon after being discovered.

Last year the Revenue taxes in this district amounted to $4,939,487.

ST. LOUIS, January 13.—The Radical caucus at Jefferson City to-night nominated Gen. Schurz for the United States Senate on the first ballot: Schurz 60, Loan 40.

Steamer Explosion—Five or Six Persons Killed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, January 13.—The stern wheel steamboat Glide, hence for Red river, ran aground and exploded her boiler last night about fifty miles above this place. She burned to the water's edge and is a total loss. Five or six persons were killed instantly or have since died, and twenty-five injured. The steamers G. G. Blatchford and Thomas Powell reached the scene in about twenty minutes and rescued the survivors, who were brought to this city by the Gov. Allen, which also brought the officers and crew.

The stern wheel steamer Idaho sunk in the Onachita river on Sunday. The Idaho and cargo are a total loss. No lives lost.

Episcopal Bishop Elected.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SYRACUSE, N. Y., January 13.—The Convention of the Episcopal Church of Central New York, met to day, Bishop Cox, presiding. The Convention on the third ballot elected Rev. Fred. D. Huntington, of Boston, Mass., Bishop of the Diocese.

THE PROUDEST LADY.

The Queen is proud on her throne,
And proud are her maids so fine,
But the proudest lady that ever was known,
Is a little lady of mine.
And oh! she flouts me, she flouts me!
And spurns, and scorns, and scouts me!
Though I drop on my knee and sue for grace,
And beg and beseech with the saddest face,
Still ever the same she doubts me.

She is seven by the calendar,
A lily's almost as tall;
But ah! this little lady's by far
The proud'st lady of all.
It's her sport and pleasure to flout me!
To spurn, and scorn, and scout me!
But ah! I've notion it's nought but play,
And that, say what she will and feign what she may,
She can't well do without me.

When she rides on her nag, away,
By park, road and river,
In a little hat, so jaunty and gay,
Oh! then she's prouder than ever!
And oh! what faces, what races!
What petulant, peri grimaces!
Why, the very pony prances and winks,
And tosses his head, and plainly thinks
He may ape her airs and graces.

But at times like a pleasant tune,
A sweeter mood o'ertakes her:
Oh! then she's sunny as skies of June,
And all her pride forsakes her.
Oh! she dances around me so fairly!
Oh! her laugh rings out so rarely!
O! she coaxes, and nestles, and purrs, and pries,
In my puzzled face with her two great eyes,
And own she loves me dearly.

Ah, the Queen is proud on her throne,
And proud are her maids so fine;
But the proudest lady that ever was known,
Is this little lady of mine.
Good lack! she flouts me, she flouts me!
She spurns, and scorns, and scouts me!
But ah! I've a notion it's nought but play,
And that, say what she will and think what she may,
She can't well do without me.

—George Alfred Townsend is said to have severed his connection with all the other papers for which he wrote, with the intention of hereafter devoting himself entirely to corresponding for the benefit of the happy readers of the Chicago Tribune.

—There have recently been going through New Orleans heavy shipments of Malaga fruits, etc., from New York to Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis. The railroad charges are so heavy that it pays to ship freight to the west by sea from New York.

—The Harrisburg Guard says: "Three hundred and ninety thousand three hundred and ninety-five tons of coal were shipped over the Summit Branch Railroad for the year just closed, being an excess of upwards of ninety-one thousand tons over the preceding year."

—The leading illustration in the last number of Punch is entitled "Under the Mistletoe," and represents old John Bull and Miss Columbia, with clasped hands, in the act of kissing each other under the mistletoe bough, which the good-natured Reverdy Johnson is holding over their heads.

—Hearth and Home has a letter on the "moustache movement," with which the writers attempt to wither the wearers of hirsute appendages, because they constantly stroke and pull them. If the writer will tell those gentlemen, old and young, some rational mode of disposing of their hands when idle, we venture to vouch for the abolition of the "moustache movement."

—An exchange says: A recent storm in Belgium was distinguished by some singular phenomena. The wind carried off several articles of the first necessity. For instance, the roof of a house and a lawyer's wife have totally disappeared. It is possible that the roof may have been found, but as for the lady, who was a light weight, her husband has given up all hopes of her recovery.

—The London Daily News refers to the appointment of Mr. John Savage, the Fenian, as Consul to Cork, as proving exclusively that President Johnson has a sense of fun and "a power of banter as exquisite as Mr. Russell Lowell or Dr. Wendell Holmes can boast," and it thinks Mr. Gladstone might refute the slander that he has no appreciation of humor by appointing Mr. Judah Benjamin as envoy at Washington.

—The notorious Philadelphia rough, Jim Haggerty, is in gaol in that city, and some of his friends endeavored to release him by breaking into his cell from the outside. This attempt so amuses the Philadelphia Bulletin that it gets off the following:

Haggerty says he only wanted the bar taken out of his window for additional security. He wished to make a fresh bolt out of it.

The way Haggerty's friends handled their crow-bars on Saturday night proved the prior attachments for him.

The attempt to bore into Haggerty's cell, on Saturday night, did not augur well for his innocence.

Several "jimmies" were found outside of the Central Station on Saturday night, but the principal "Jimmy" remained inside.

—Yesterday morning we saw a crowd of from fifty to seventy-five persons, men, women and children, standing on the lower side of the Allegheny Suspension Bridge, eagerly watching eight men and two dogs on the steamboats and wharf below, endeavoring to kill or capture a rat which had taken refuge on a spar which was floating between the boats and the wharf. The sagacity and agility of the rodent proving too much for the sticks and stones of his assailants, one man boldly got into a skiff, and armed with a stout pole got near enough to push the scared animal from his perch on spar into the water among the broken ice. Several times the drowning animal bravely clambored out, only, however, to be thrust back by the brave St. George in the skiff. Breathlessly the dogs and eight men watched the struggle, and the final agonies of the audacious animal were heartily greeted by them and by the crowd on the bridge above. We think the admiring army which gazed from the bridge might testify their approbation by having handsome commemoratlve badges made for the victors, on which might be some such legend as "These eight assisted only by dogs, poles and sticks, valorously succeeded, after a spirited conflict, in drowning a rat January 13, 1868."

The "Wild Man" Story in Ohio.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

Gallipolis is excited over a wild man, who is reported to haunt the woods near that city. He goes naked, is covered with hair, is gigantic in height and "his eyes start from their sockets." A carriage, containing a man and daughter, was attacked by him a few days ago. He is said to have "bounded at the father, catching him in a grip like that of a vice, and hurling him to the earth, falling on him and endeavoring to bite and scratch like a wild animal. The struggle was long and fearful, rolling and wallowing in the deep mud, half suffocated, sometimes beneath his adversary, whose burning and maniac eyes glared into his own with murderous and savage intensity. Just as he was about to become exhausted from his exertions, the daughter, taking courage at the imminent danger of her parent, snatched up a rock and hurling it at the head of her father's would-be murderer, was fortunate enough to put an end to the struggle by striking him somewhere about the ear. The creature was not stunned, but feeling unequal to further exertion slowly got up and retired into a neighboring copse that skirted the road."

In speaking of the long-eared libel verdict against the Chicago Tribune, the New York Commercial Advertiser relates: "Not long since, a subordinate employed on one of our New York journals passed, by mistake, into the printers' instead of the reference box, a savage and malicious onslaught upon the principal proprietor, and it appeared a few hours later on the editorial page. An office errand boy, who aspired to editorial responsibilities, was recently detected in sending newspaper extracts up to the printers. We speak of these incidents to show how easily a mistake may occur in the conduct of a large daily journal which employs many heads and hands, and is necessarily made up rapidly."

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 135⅞.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, January 13, 1869.

MONEY.

The Money market is once more working easier, and the demand on call readily supplied at 7 per cent. The offerings are more liberal and the Banks getting into stronger positions by increasing receipts of currency from the West. Discounts dull and unchanged. The Commonwealth and New York County Banks are taking steps to return to the State system, one of the Albany Banks doing the same. Sterling, which was firm in the morning at 9¼, closed weak at 9¼@9⅜. Gold firmer; opened at 135⅝, and closed at 135⅞.

BONDS AND STOCKS.

The market for Governments was quiet and steady during most of the day; Ten-Forties, however, advanced materially. At the close the whole list was stronger. Coupons: 1881, 112¼@112¼; do. The Railway market is active and higher. The bull programme is progressing vigorously, and while the special features are Reading, St. Paul, Rock Island, Ft. Wayne, Wabash and Northwestern, the whole list is buoyant and excited with a heavy advance. Reading is under the influence of the Erie combination. St. Paul preferred was very active at the last board and in the the long room, one broker alone taking 5,000 shares. Pittsburgh, Rock Island and Northwest were also heavily dealt in.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather yesterday, was cold and winter-like, and, thus far G. A's. predictions have been verified. The thermometer at four P. M. was down to 28, and the barometer at noon 30 and rising, indicating dry cold weateer. Both rivers are falling steadily with fourteen feet in the channel last evening by the Allegheny marks, and two or three inches less by the Monongahela marks.

Boats in port—New York, Armadillo, Glasgow, Maggie Hays, Kate Putnam, R. R Hudson, Wild Duck and Messenger.

The inclement weather is retarding work on the new boats somewhat.

The arrivals since our last report, include the New York, from Louisville; Glasgow, from St. Louis, and Armadillo, from New Orleans, all with fair trips. The Armadillo among other items, has a considerable quantity of sugar and molasses.

The Camelia, from Nashville, is due here to-day. She is advertised for a return trip.

The Sallie was advertised to leave Cinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

The Lorena and Leonidas were expected to arrive at Cincinnati on Tuesday night.

The Maggie Hays, Capt. B. C. Martin, will be the first boat out for St. Louis, as will also, the Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean, for New Orleans. These are both first-rate boats.

The Emma No. 3 arrived at New Orleans on the 10th.

Business was more animated at the landing yesterday in consequence of the numerous arrivals; shipments, however, continue light, which is owing in part, at least, to the bad condition of the levee.

—The Franklin County Court has voted $75,000 for the improvement of Kentucky river navigation.

—The towboat Kanawha, coming out of the Kentucky river, last week, sunk two loaded coalboats at the head of Red House Chute. They belonged to the Coalburg Company.

—It has been resolved to build steamers to run between the Falls of St. Anthony and the head of navigation on the Upper Mississippi. St. Louis boatmen are interested in the movement.

—Captain Joseph Schofield, formerly engineer on the Cincinnati and Marietta packet Edinburgh, purchased the little stern-wheeler Fawn, last week, for the Muskingum river trade.

—A St. Louis dispatch says: Several mountain boats will be strengthened with the new requirements by the Board of Underwriters in regard to insurance. The announcement that another line to Vicksburg, to go into operation in the Spring, has caused considerable excitement is boating circles.

—The Empire, which sunk in the Mississippi some days since, had the following items of freight for Pittsburgh: Arbuckles & Co., 10 bhds sugar; Atwell & Lee, 13 do do; Watt, Lang & Co., 24 do do; W. Haslage & Co, 20 do do; Carter, McGrew & Co., 13 do do; Allen, Kirkpatrick & Co., 20 do do, 74 bbls molasses; T. & W. T. Furguson, 64 do do.

—The Vicksburg Times, of recent date, says: The Wauanita passed down twenty-five days out from Pittsburgh, having left that smoky city on December 11th. She delivered her freight here under a protest entered at Memphis. We saw a copy of the instrument and it simply says, the Wauanita "met with a disaster." The nature of which, also time and place, was not stated, nor could we learn any particulars of the accident.

—Says the Cincinnati Gazette: There is a dangerous snag at the head of McCullom's, near the Ohio shore, where steamboats run. Several boats have struck it recently coming up. There is another ugly snag lodged on the point at East Bend..... .....We clip the following from the same paper: Steamboatmen who know the capacity of the John H. Gresbeck must have been surprised yesterday to learn by a dispatch that she was coming up the river with 800 tons aboard.

—The old habit of taking two months or a month and a half to run from Pittsburgh to New Orleans seems to be in vogue again. The Wauanita passed Vicksburg 25 days out from Pittsburgh, having left that smoky city on December 11th. She delivered her freight there under a protest entered at Memphis.—Louisville Courier.

The Bellevernon, which boat arrived on Saturday, made the round trip from Pittsburgh to New Orleans and back in thirty-three days, besides losing a good deal of time by fog. Will the Courier make a note of this?

—Louisville telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial says: The Marine Association adopted, the following resolutions, from the St. Louis Marine Charitable Association, regulating pilots in regard to signals: "That the new steamboat bill now before Congress be so amended, that in case of boats meeting at night, it shall be the duty of the pilot of the up-stream boat, when meeting a decending boat, to stop his engines within 800 yards, and the down-stream boat to work slow; the decending boat then to signify which side she desires to take, and to keep up the signal until the ascending boat responds, when both boats can assume their headway, if satisfied of no danger of collision." They also adopted a resolution in favor of the steamboat bill now before Congress, introduced by General Pile, favoring the adoption of it in lieu of the recent steamboat law.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be, and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out of the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. K. says that he has known the most distressing an harassing coughs, whose vibrations would threaten to shake the whole constitution to pieces, removed in the course of a few days In long standing cases of consumption, or of other sometimes fatal, but always troublesome and annoying maladies, known as catarrh, chronic bronchitis, trachitis or pharyngitis, it is a wonderful alleviating medicine in the former and a sure cure in he latter disease.

DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE IS ENRICHED BY SOME OF THE MOST VALUABLE PLANTS AND HERBS KNOWN TO BE USEFUL AND CURATIVE IN ALL DETERIORATED STATES OF THE HUMAN BLOOD, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glanular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, hopelessly incurable and so most surely fatal.

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 135¾.

HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS, author of the Tenure-of-Office Act, is opposed to its repeal.

THE prospects are that the MOORHEAD tariff bill will not meet with consideration this session of Congress.

THE Johnstown Tribune, one of the very ablest of our weekly exchanges, comes to us in an enlarged form, presenting a very handsome appearance.

THE newly elected Councils of Allegheny City will meet for organization at the chamber of the Common Branch on Friday morning at ten o'clock.

THE election of A. W. CAMPBELL, Esq., to the United States Senate from West Virginia is now thought highly probable. He will carry with him, to the position, if elected, large experience and decided ability.

THE BODY of the late Hon. DARWIN A. FINNEY, formerly member of Congress from the XXth, Pennsylvania Congressional District, arrived in New York, from Antwerp, yesterday. The remains will be consigned to their final resting place in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia.

THE LEGISLATURE has before it a new Registry Law, carefully framed to hold water when before the Supreme Court. It is thought the bill will pass, as all the Republican members are inclined to favor it. We have not the text before us, and hence cannot express any opinion as to its merits or Constitutionality.

THE Republican nominee for State Treasurer, R. W. MACKEY, Esq., of this city, was yesterday, elected to that office by the Legislature, by a vote of 76 to 51. Congratulating our friend and neighbor upon his acquisition of this honorable trust it is equally due to his personal merits to add that the Commonwealth secures, in this choice, a most competent and valuable servant. His term of office will be for one year dating from the first Monday of Monday next.

GEN. T. S. CASEMENT, the contractor for laying the track of the Union Pacific Railroad, presented his credentials as a delegate to Congress from Wyoming Territory, on Tuesday. His claims to a seat were referred to the Committee on Elections. Gen. CASEMENT would certainly make his mark as a member of the House, as he is full of life and action. Any man who can lay three miles of railroad track a day is worthy a seat in any body, especially Congress, where he can expedite matters.

THOSE who clamor for a revival of the Canadian Reciprocity treaty have just encountered what Mr. J. B. GOUGH would call a "circumstance," of the most uncomfortable type. The report of a special commissioner of the Treasury shows that, while the old treaty was in operation, we derived a revenue of only $75,000 annually from Canadian importations, while our exports to those provinces yielded $2,500,000 per year in customs to the Canadian government. More than that; abrogating the one-sided arrangement, our Canadian trade has actually increased, and the Treasury has collected $7,000,000 annually in duties therefrom. This is a bad show for any more "reciprocity."

IN CITY COUNCILS on Tuesday, there was introduced a resolution instructing the City Engineer to prepare a plan of general sewerage for the city; but meeting with some opposition, from the fact that it did not come through the proper committee, it was laid on the table. It will probably come up at the next meeting, and we trust will be favorably acted upon. The city badly needs such a plan, and the cost of its preparation would be a mere trifle in comparison to the great advantage derived therefrom. At present, sewers are constructed indiscriminately of various capacities, and in serpentine ways find connection with the river. Many serious errors of judgment have been made in the past in the construction of some of the most important sewers of the city, owing to the fact that no general plan has been in use. The City Engineer is throughly competent for the work and the Councils should not be slow to embrace themselves of his services in the matter.

THE STATEMENT of the business of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company for the month and for the year past, appears in another column. Compared with December 1867, the last month shows an increase of $30,545.58 in the net earnings, while the entire net increase for the year reaches the very notable sum of $636,448.42 It is also to be observed that, while the gross earnings have swollen from $7,242,125.96 in '67 to $8,022,120 74 in '68, an addition of about $780,000, the expenses for the same period were enlarged by not quite $140,000, resulting in the net iucrease as above. Herein we have conclusive proof that the affairs of the corporation have been managed with as much economy as skill. If the business of the year, like that of the month, has derived this large additional income almost wholly from the carriage of freights, it would also afford the best evidence that the Fort Wayne road has reached a solid basis in the public confidence.

THE PRESENTMENT.

We publish in another column the presentment of the Grand Jury, presented yesterday to the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions. It is a concisely worded and interesting document, and will repay perusal. We most heartily agree with the complimentary reference made to the Work House and of the gentlemen comprising the Board of Managers, and the Superintendent, who are charged with the details of its erection. The recommendation that the institution be early completed is a good one, as the county is suffering with an overcrowded jail, and the hundreds who almost live entirely in confinement as vagrants might be redeemed and made useful members of society if they could be consigned to a work house, where they would have to earn their bread by industry.

The Grand Jury members were specially pleased with Dixmont Hospital, the County Home and House of Refuge, all of which institutions are managed in a highly creditable manner.

The unblushing violation of the license law, as well as the enormous increase of rum shops in the vicinity, is a topic lightly touched upon by the presentment. We do not see that any relief can come until the present law is materially changed. The liquor traffic is hard to regulate, and it is at least due the people that the Legislature frame for the county a law less objectionable than the one in force. It was thought when it was passed that the effect would be to temporarily increase the number of liquor saloons, but that in the course of time the weaker dealers would fall out of the way, unable to cope with the great opposition presented. Such has not been the case, but to the contrary, both weak and strong are prospering.

The reference made to the incompetency of Police magistrates is in a measure supported by facts, but the exceptions to the rule are more numerous than the reader might infer from the presentment. We fail to see the force of the suggestions made to secure reform in this direction. Upon the whole the presentment is well worthy the attention of all thoughtful citizens.

A PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.

When the city of Philadelphia was invited to subscribe for one hundred thousand shares of stock of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the application was urgently supported by the friends of the projected improvement, and as stoutly opposed by many citizens of large practical experience in everything but railway affairs. Fortunately for that city, the more sagacious counsels prevailed, and the subscription was made. For the payment of the sum subscribed, the city negotiated, upon its own credit, a loan of $5,000,000. For a considerable period, and until the completed road began to realize a remunerative income, the interest upon this loan was also an added burthen upon the City Treasury. But the day at last came when the most sanguine hopes of its early and steadfast friends were more than realized. Paying regular and ample dividends, these outgoes of the City Treasury ceased; the income from the stock met the regularly recurring payments for interest, and the only question remaining concerned the ultimate discharge of the principal of the loan.

Philadelphia then awoke to the fact that she was rapidly becoming a great and prosperous city. And there were none of her people so blind as to overlook, or so tenacious of their former prejudices as to deny, that, for her late and wonderful advance in population and wealth, she was mainly indebted to the courage and wisdom which had projected and perfected this great road, and which has bound the vast resources of the West as an inseparable element in the material prosperity of the great city at its tide-water terminus. Philadelphia then realized that the amount expended for her subscription was already more than repaid to her by this wonderful increment in the wealth of her citizens, and that she could afford to lose every other recourse for the repayment of the five millions subscribed, and still would be the gainer, in dollars actually netted to her general resources.

She has done even better than that. A recent report of her City Controller gives the sequel of the story. Recapitulating the amounts paid out for interest on the loan, and the sums received by way of dividends, upon the stock which the proceeds of that loan had paid for, it appears that not only has every dollar spent been repaid to the city, but that it has also realized the further sum of $3,390,421,78, for application in the reduction of its debt, and that it still holds 70,149 shares of the stock, worth, at the current rates, $3,770,508. The city has thus made a direct profit of more than $2,160,000, after the last dollar of its bonds shall have been cancelled. How many millions more might be added to the amount, to represent the indirect but not less solid advantages which its people have reaped from their timely sagacity and steadfast pluck, it would be difficult to compute.

A WEST INDIAN STATE.

The proposition for an American protectorate over certain West Indian islands, to which we alluded recently, was formally brought before Congress, by Gen. BANKS, in the House on Tuesday. It met with an unfavorable reception from members. Although no vote was taken, and the subject went over for the day, enough was said, in a running commentary in the way of queries from the curious and of replies by the member from Massachusetts, to evince the sense of the House unmistakably against the policy of such present intervention in the affairs of neighboring peoples. Incidentally, but significantly, an inquiry whether any negotiations are pending, between the administration and the authorities of Hispaniola, was apparently evaded by Gen. BANKS, but substantially answered in the affirmative. His language will be everywhere regarded as tantamount to the admission that Mr. SEWARD has already taken the initial steps for the proposed agreement with those authorities.

The programme is, evidently, under the disguise of a protectorate, to absorb Hayti and San Domingo among the American possessions. Next, would come such effectual aid to the Cuban insurgents as to establish the nominal independence of that island, over which a similar protectorate would speedily follow.

The Haytien proposition, strictly upon its own merits, might find many friends in this country. The two Governments in that island are absolutely independent, and no pewer in the world can dispute their right to dispose of themselves as they please. The Cuban affair is altogether a different question, and that part of the programme would be fruitful of international difficulties, which we are all earnestly desirous to avoid. Whenever the advocates of Haytien annexation shall be able to satisfy our people that their proposition would involve no hazards in this direction, they will have a very fair prospect for its general adoption. We can all agree to take Hispaniola, provided that no money is to be paid for it, and that its population accept the ordinary position of other States in our Republic. The arguments in favor of annexation are many, and most of them are palpable, while objections might be partizan but could have little substantial weight.

Nevertheless, the scheme is likely to be defeated now—to be revived at an early day.

THE CLEVELAND RAILROAD IMBROGLIO.

In referring to the late Railroad imbroglio the Cleveland Herald says:

The newly elected Directors are as follows: J. N. McCulloch, Wellsville; James F. Clark, Cleveland: J. Graham Garpiner, Cincinnati; E. Gest, Cincinnati; J. J. Gest, Cincinnati; B. F. Jones, Pittsburgh; Joseph Stickney, Wilkesbarre, Pa.; W. H. Denham, New York; N. Millard, New York; N. A. Prentiss, New York: John D. Taylor, New York. The terms of the contract existing between this Company and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company required the election of Mr. McCulloch Superintendent of the latter road to the Board of Directors of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Road; that fact probably accounts for the retention by the new dynasty of that gentleman. At the last year's election, when the Vanderbilt influence controlled, Mr. Jas. F. Clark, of this city, was not re-elected as Director. This fact may have been the reason for his election now by the Erie interest. How Mr. Jones, of Pittsburgh, came to be chosen we do not know. Fortunately, these gentlemen were on the Board, and while they had no power to stay the piracy committed by the majority, they have the integrity to expose the deep damnation of the taking off in a carpet bag of the records and funds, of the company.

By the original charter of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Company a certain number of Directors must be citizens of Ohio, the object of which clause is apparent; but to neutralize that feature the Ohio Directors—save Messrs. Clark and McCullough—were taken from Cincinnati, the most distant point from the road, while one Director hailing from Cincinnati is a New York carpet-bagger, sent out a few days in advance of the election to gain a nominal residence for the purpose of being included in the Board.

Whether we consider the boldness or novelty of this operation, it has not its parallel in stock movements. And there is another feature in these elections of Railroad Directors not generally known, and which, it is said, entered so largely into the election of the C. & P. Company on the 6th as to control the vote. Proxies are supposed to be given by holders of the stock to persons who represent the views of the owner of such stock; it not being convenient for such holders to attend personally upon the meeting at which the election takes place, they give a power of attorney that their views may be represented in the election. But the original object of the proxy, so far as railroad elections are concerned, has been lost; and now proxies are matters of traffic, the parties securing them who are willing to pay the largest premium for their use. Report has it that enough proxies were used, for the use of which two per cent. were paid, as to control the election on the 6th instant.

WHEN Judge Woodward was nominated, General Cass was a candidate, but his friends made no complaint; when the gallant Hiester Clymer received the nomination over Mr. Cass, no man contributed more of means than the latter, or rendered a more cordial support to the nominee. * * * It is fair to state that he will probably have no competitor whose name has been mentioned in any previous convention. The gentlemen who are likely to be named feel the necessity of being placed upon the track and take their turn. The whole electioneering business is distasteful to General Cass; he does not seek the office; he has no unkind words for gentlemen who aspire to the place; on the contrary, holds them in high estimation. We believe he is the choice of the people of the State, who now urge the use of his name, which they believe will be a certain guarantee of victory. We but simply echo that voice in advocating his nomination. But come what may, the friends of General Cass will use no dishonorable means in advancing his claims to that high office.. Everybody feels that ability and probity are sadly needed there again, and on the general knowledge that he possesses these essential qualifications, his friends confidently rest his claims.—[Post.

We italicize the expressions which plainly cover the Post's sneer at the obscurity of General Cass's competitors, and its impeachment of their ability and probity. It is not our fault that our cotemporary's blow was so awkwardly delivered as to expose its animus to the most superficial observer. We desire only to do justice to the gentlemen so unkindly assailed.

THE OFFICE-TENURE LAW.

Of the vote in the House for the repeal of this law, a letter to the New York Times says:

The nays were all Republicans, and included some of the ablest and most practical men in the House, such as Garfield, Delano, Shellabarger and Schenck, of Ohio; Pomeroy, Churchill, McCarthy and Laflin, of New York; Ames, of Massachusetts; Jenckes, of Rhode Island; Perham and Pike, of Maine; Maynard, of Tennessee, and others. Their votes are not to be taken by any means as indicative of a want of confidence in the new administration, for some of them are the warmest admirers of both the President and Vice President. Some of them would have voted for the repeal if it had come from the Committee in regular order, and had been open to debate. Others are in favor of the principle of the bill, but would have voted for a modification of its provisions. Many Republicans voted for its repeal with pleasure, because they felt that on the occasion of its original passage they had been obliged to vote for it under the pressure of political necessity. Judge Bingham stated in private conversation very emphatically that he voted for the repeal of the statute because it was a dead letter, the Senate having refused to execute it. If the vote in the House is any indication, its passage in the Senate is certain, but the subject will be debated there at great length, and no prediction as to its result can be safely made. It will be noticed that nearly all the Southern members voted for the repeal.

Republican sentiment is divided with the same clearness, among the more influential journals of the party. These, however, come much nearer to an agreement in their speculations upon the result of the movement in the Senate. The unconditional repeal of the act does not seem probable. If anything be done to disturb the present situation, it will, doubtless, be by way of amendment. And final action in the Senate may be deferred to a period so late in the session, as to enable Mr. JOHNSON to pocket, and so defeat the amendatory or repealing bill. In no event, will the present Executive be suffered to derive any official benefit from the decision of Congress. Knowing this, Mr. JOHNSON is quite willing to throw this matter over, in the hope that it may prove an element of discord in the ensuing Congress. Of the recent vote in the House, the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

The action was sudden, and the determination to repeal the bill—no good reason being shown why it should be done—will strike many as a rather extraordinary proceeding. It is to be presumed that the members of the House supposed that they were doing a service to General Grant by the passage of this bill. If it is now repealed upon the heel of Johnson's administration, it can only be upon the confession that it was passed to embarrass him. Undoubtedly it was enacted because he was a bad President; but to a good President the law ought not to be a hardship or an impediment, because he would not desire to do anything which would cause the provisions of the law to bear forcibly against him. General Grant will find no difficulty about this law. The Senate will surely advise and consent to the removal of all the incompetent and unfaithful officers appointed by Andrew Johnson. In regard to Grant's own appointments, they will be consented to by the Senate, and as long as he and Congress are in accord it is to be presumed that he will have no occasion to remove them except for cause. The law may require amendment to make it more easy in cases of necessity arising for removal during the session of Congresss, but the general principle of the act is just, and its retention in the statute book would do no harm.

THE pending Senatorial contests have reached no decision, except in our own State. In Maine, the success of Mr. HAMLIN is not yet assured. In Missouri, where the fight is triangular between SCHURZ, LOAN and HENDERSON, a dispatch says:

"The Schurz men are jubilant and declare that Loan is surely beaten, but meanwhile Henderson is looming and gathering strength, and the conflict is by no means over. It will be short, however, for the regular nominating caucus will be held on Wednesday night, and if the decision of that body is adhered to the fight will end, but of this there is no assurance. The excitement is so great and the feeling so bitter that there is scarcely a doubt but that every means will be used to defeat Schurz, no matter what the result of the caucus may be."

The State of Superior.

The people of Michigan are taking measures for the formation of a new State, to be contructed of the Upper Peninsula in the State of Michigan; and that portion of Wisconsin lying north of a line drawn from the mouth at the Menominee due west of the Mississippi river, to be called the State of Superior.

The proposed State would extend from Sault Ste. Marie on the east, taking the whole south shore of Lake Superior as its northern boundary, embracing nine counties of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan and the tier of counties in Wisconsin. The area of the State would be about 35,000 square miles, and the population would range from 75,000 to 100,000. The region possesses yast undeveloped wealth in its mines, its lumber, and its fisheries, and if erected into a separate State would soon take rank among the most prosperous of the Union.

CONCERNING General Butler's financial scheme, the New York Tribune says: "Whether we or General Butler are right as to the mode and medium of payment for the bonds, we will not argue, but we can but be honest in the premises."

The Herald says of the scheme: "However much his views may be questioned or opposed by the old school financiers and political economists, no doubt he has struck the chord of popular sentiment; that he will be recognized as the leader in this new movement for an American system of currency and finance."

The World says: "His plan is not without ingenuity and a certain sort of architectural symmetry, but built upon a ridiculously unstable foundation and supported by sophistries, we can't call them arguments, which could be generated only in the brains of a demagogue."

A DEPUTATION of two clergymen from Bohemia will visit the United States next spring, in order to set forth the condition of the Protestants in that important province of Austria. The visit is made in consequence of an invitation extended at the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, at Bath, England, in 1866, and renewed in 1867, by an American clergyman who was travelling in Bohemia.

THE highest price obtained for any one lot of mules at Paris, Kentucky, on Monday last, was nine head of John T. Reymon's at $170 per head. Yearlings were bid at $140. Horses sold well, ranging from $40 to $150. Captain Kidd sold twenty-four head of yearling mules at $100 05.

A MR. WHIPPE, of Kingsville, Ashtabula county, Ohio, while killing a hog two weeks ago had one of his fingers bitten off. Amputation was made above the wound, and it was apparently doing well, when he was taken sick, and before his death on the 3d, he exhibited all the symptoms of hydrophobia.

Kansas Legislature--Governor's Message.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 13.—The Democrat's Topeka, (Kansas,) special says Gov. Harvey's message was sent to the Legislature to-day. The bonded debt of the State is $1,095,175; State warrants outstanding on the 1st of December, $290,254; amount of taxes due and now being paid for 1868 to meet these warrants, $231,450, and unpaid taxes for the previous year, $156,385. The estimated expenses for the current year, exclusive of State institutions, is $157,542. Nearly $10,000 will have to be raised to meet the expense of calling out a battalion of militia and the Nineteenth regiment to defend the border against the Indians. The Governor recommends that two regiments of militia be organized, armed and equipped, of men living on frontier, to meet raids, and also urges a legislative petition to Congress to transfer the bureau to the war debt. He favors a recommendation by Congress, providing for equal suffrage, regardless to sex or color. There are 45,140 children in public schools against 24,429 of last year. Amount paid to teachers, $703,878. Received from land tax for school purposes, $342,421. Total value of school houses, $8,813,062. Number of school districts organized, 1,237.

He recommends a liberal appropriation to the Emigration Bureau, and of the publication of pamphlets in English, German and Scandinavian languages, setting forth the advantages of the United States to emigrants. The extension of the Pacific Railroad to New Mexico and Arizona is considered of very great importance. The population of the State has doubled in the last four years, but a very large portion of it—50,000,000 acres of land, are still open to homestead energy.

—In New York, at an inquest on the body of a little girl fatally burnt by the explosion of kerosene oil, it was shown that the oil was below the lawful standard, being almost pure benzine. The Coroner charged the jury, and they rendered a verdict to the effect that the accident was due to the culpable negligence of Roiser & Lahnmeiker, the manufacturers, and Samuel Schoonmaker, the vendor of the oil. They also recommended all kerosene oil in the city to be properly tested. The Coroner held the manufacturers and Schoonmaker under heavy bonds to await the action of the Grand Jury.

—The steamship Etna, which arrived at New York on Sunday from Liverpool, had a very tempestuous voyage. The fifth officer was swept overboard on December 26th and drowned; five others were also washed overboard at the same time, but were rescued. Several of the crew and passengers were badly injured by the same sea, one of them having his collar bone broken. The deck was swept of officers' quarters and boats, and the greatest consternation prevailed among the two hundred passengers on board. The voyage was one of the most severe ever experienced.

—The Maine Senatorial question, says a dispatch from Augusta, has assumed a new feature. Mr. Perry, a member of the House, has declared in a card that he threw the blank vote in the caucus intentionally. This leaves Hamlin with a clear majority of Republicans in the Legislature who desired to vote. Morrill's friends now claim that he was clearly the choice of a majority of his party, and fairly nominated, and if any member of his party refuses to vote for him he becomes a bolter.

—The Congressional Committee investigating the New York election frauds were in secret session yesterday, and will probably adjourn to the rural districts in a few days. The Union League Committee say they have paid Larry Farrell thirty dollars on his representation that he had paid out one hundred dollars for the Board to witnesses, but on his saying that the witnesses were willing to swear anything, he and his witnesses were summarily dismissed.

—Terrible land slides have occurred in different parts of Mexico, involving considerable loss of life. Creeks have appeared where, previously, there was nothing but barren districts. There were continuous rumblings of the earth.

AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS AND URINARY ORGANS.

Diseases of this nature are found to exist in persons of all ages. Children, and even infants, are subject to unnatural secretions of the Kidneys, and pain in voiding the urine, as well as adults. Especially is this the case with aged and infirm persons, and those whose habits are sedentary. Nor is this a matter of surprise when we take into consideration the delicate nature of the kidneys, and the important functions they have to perform. All the superfluous, unhealthy and poisonous waste of the system must pass through the kidneys, thence into the bladder, and passes off with the urine; consequently any obstruction in the kidneys, that will prevent these poisonous particles from being thrown off, will be followed by disease of the organs themselves and more or less derangement of the whole system. Among the symptoms of such derangement are the following: Deep seated pain in the small of the back, sometimes extending around the loins in the abdomen, or a dull, heavy, numbing pain, extending from the back down the lower extremity of the right abdomen to the luner part of the thigh; great difficulty is experienced in voiding the urine, feverlish skin, headache, nervous and general debility, &c., &c.

In the removal and cure of such diseases, no remedy has yet been discovered that equals DR. SARGENT'S DIURETIC OR BACHACHE PILLS. They have been used extensively for upwards of forty years, and have given perfect satisfaction in every case, and are highly recommended by all who have used them. For sale by all Druggists.

THE MACHINE, CALLED MAN,

Is a very complicated and delicate one, and is more liable to get out of order, and much more difficult to repair, than any combination of wheels, and cranks, and levers, made by the hands of man. As a rule, it is tinkered too much, and badly tinkered at that. It is often calomelized, narcotized, depleted, and otherwise misused, when all that it really needs is a wholesome tonic and restorative like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS to put it in proper trim and keep it so. The stomach is shamefully maltreated. In the first place, the food which its juices are intended to dissolve, is too frequently thrown into it hastily, and in a half masticated condition, in which state the gastric acid cannot properly act upon it. The result is dyspepsia. Then comes the doctor, and finding the digestive organs weak and the bowels inert, he proceeds to weaken and paralyze still more with drastic purgatives. These failings, in always to be expected, he tells the invalid that medical science can do no more for him. This, with all due deference, is a mistake,—one of those mistakes which Talleyrand said were tantamount to crimes. What the dyspeptic needs is invigoration. Strengthen the stomach with HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, and the bowels will strengthen every other part of the human machine, and make it, in common parlance, as good as new. Upon the state of the digestion depends, in a measure, the condition of the whole system. Now, the Bitters are the most admirable tonic known. They consist of the finest vegetable invigorants and restoratives, combined with an unadulterated stimulant. The dyspeptic needs nothing else to effect a cure, except a light, nutritious diet, and a fair amount of exercise. Even in the absence of these last mentioned accessories, the tonic and alterative properties of the preparation will work wonders, enabling the dyspeptic to digest inferior fare with comparative ease, and to maintain a good habit of body, in spite of the drawbacks of a sedentary occupation.

THE SOUND OF THE LUNGS.

One of the most accurate ways of determining whether the lungs are in a healthy or diseased condition, is by means of listening to the respiration. To those experienced in this practice it becomes as plain an index to the state of the lungs, and is as well known to the operator as are the voices of his most intimate acquaintances. The belief that long standing coughs, and diseases of the lungs upon which they are dependent, are incurable, are fast becoming obsolete. One great advantage to be gained from this advance in medical knowledge is the earlier application of those who become afflicted with those diseases to some one competent to afford relief. The error which had taken hold of the public mind in regard to the curability of consumption, or rather non-curability, is fast becoming obliterated, and it is well that it should be so, not that persons should lose that salutary fear which would make them apply for a timely remedy, but that all might be induced to use remedies while there is any hope. It is the delay in these cases that fills us with apprehension and alarm, for if every one would make timely application of DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE in the beginning of a cold or cough, few cases would go so far as to become irremediable.

Sold at the Doctor's great Medicine Store, No. 140 Wood street. WILL SHORTLY REMOVE TO HIS NEW STORE, NO. 16 LIBERTY STREET, SECOND DOOR FROM ST. CLAIR.

DR. KEYSER'S RESIDENT OFFICE FOR LUNG EXAMINATIONS AND THE TREATMENT OF OBSTINATE CHRONIC DISEASES, No. 140 PENN STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA. Office Hours from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M., and from 7 to 8 at night.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The Nevada Legislature yesterday re-elected William M. Stewart United States Senator.

—The Bank of Montreal, Canada, was entered by burglars, Monday night, and the safe blown open and robbed of $50,000 in Canada legal tender notes.

—The wholesale firms of Chicago last year made returns of sales amounting to $350,000,000, and the cattle brokers of sales amounting to $38,000,000. It is estimated that the incomes of the citizens, taxable and untaxable, exceeds $64,500,000.

—Nehum Hobrook, Esq., a prominent citizen of Upton, Mass, about sixty-five years of age, was found dead in his saw mill on Monday. From the marks on his body it is supposed that he was killed by a slab flying off suddenly, hitting him on the stomach.

—Four libel suits against the Chicago Tribune for a total of $100,000 damages were ruled out of the Superior Court on Monday. They were instituted by four merchants, who claim that the Tribune charged them with arson to avoid failure. They appeal to the Supreme Court.

—The Revenue Cutter, Lincoln returned to San Francisco from an unsuccessful search for the shoal, reported eighty miles southwest of southeast Farrellon. Eight thorough examinations of the locality assigned the shoal have been made the present season, with no indication of bottom found with one hundred fathoms line.

—In the U. S. Circuit Court, at Chicago, on Monday, Judge Drummond issued an order for the arrest of the Board of Supervisors of Lee county, Iowa, for refusing to levy taxes to pay certain county bonds, the payment of which had been decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, but which the Iowa Supreme Court declared invalid. It is a conflict of jurisdiction that may lead to trouble.

—Frank Blair, it is reported, holds to his expressed opinion that General Grant will make a Dictator or an Emperor of himself before he leaves the White House. His modest deportment is simply deep dissimulation, and one of the measures always used by ambitious men since Julius Cæsar thrice refused the crown. The country is already ruled by a minority who demand the aid of bayonets, and it will be easy for Grant, with his military power, to make himself supreme.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, January 13, 1868.

The high rate for exchange had a tendency to advance the price of gold to 137⅞, with a general disposition to buy, not only for covering former rates, but also on speculation. These firmer rates for gold are the more surprising, since the advance in American securities in the European markets is considerable, and the general disposition to buy for higher quotations.

In Government bonds a dull market has to be reported, following very naturally the excitement for several days to buy; nearly all the speculators have tried to realize, having made from 2 to 4 per cent.

For the present the future price of bonds depends on the course railway shares and miscellaneous securities will take; if the demand is actually as lively as is reported higher price may be looked for in bonds, and all securities based on Government credit. Pacific Railroad bonds are already better appreciated, and will soon command much higher premiums.

In Railroad shares the market is strong in Rock Island; Fort Wayne, New York Central, Erie, Cleveland, Ohio & Mississippi, and all dependencies on Erie are less firm, waiting for something to turn up. Express shares are strong and higher, also Pacific Mail.

In local securities the market is dull; few stocks are offered and fewer inquired for. Money easier, business seems to improve.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET

PENN'A CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, WEDNESDAY, January 13, 1869.

CATTLE.

The receipts of Cattle have again been large thus far this week, the arrivals today alone reaching about seventy car loads, and with unfavorable advices from the east, and a smaller number of buyers in attendance than usual, the market is a very dull one, and, compared with last week, prices are lower. And it looked at noon, to-day, as if still further concessions would have to be made before there would be much business done, as the supply was considerably in excess of the demand, and buyers seemed pretty determined not to take hold unless they could do so at a reduction. The sales, all told, during Monday, Tuesday and up until noon to-day, only reached one hundred and fourteen head, and, as will be seen, prices ranged all the way from 4½ to 8c, as to quality and condition.

Smith & Blue to McGarvey 21 head, weighing 18,075, at 5,25; Haskett to Filmer & Co. 17, weighing 19,085, at 7,50; Smith & Blue to Mike 3, weighing 3,075, at 4,50; Alsdorf to Shamberg 8, weighing 7,360, at 5,25; Childs to Olmus & Co. 18, weighing 20,375, at 8; Traurman & Co. to Olmus & Co. 18, weighing 21,625, at 7,65.

HOGS

The market for Hogs at the date of our last report was a little offish; since then, however, under the influence of diminished arrivals, a firmer feeling has again sprung up, and prices are nearly as high as ever. The whole number sold foots up 4,378 head, and quotations may be fairly given at 10¼ to 10,50 for Yorkers, and 11⅛ to 11,25 for prime Philadelphia Hogs, and 11,50 for extra do. It should be borne in mind that 11,50 is an outside figure, and could only be realized for extra Hogs.

SHEEP.

The Sheep market was very dull to-day, caused by increased receipts, and a diminished demand, and compared with the close of last week, prices are from one half to three-fourths of a cent lower. The sales foot up 4,711 head, and quotations may be fairly given at 3,50 to 4 cts for common; 4,50 to 5 for good and 5,50 to 6 for prime to extra. Last week, it will be remembered, prime fat Sheep sold at 6,50 to 6,75.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, January 13, 1869.

There is but little that is new or important to be said about the markets in a general way. The railroads are somewhat blocked by snow and the receipts of merchandize are consequently, conparatively light, but supplies are fully up to the demand so that no trouble need be apprehended on that score. The demand for almost everything is very light being restructed entirely a supplying immediate wants, and, with a light volume of business, prices generally are unchanged.

APPLE BUTTER—70 to 80 cents.

APPLES—In fair demand, and steady with regular sales at $3,50 to $5,50 per bbl, as to quality.

BUTTER—The local demand continues light, and there is no margin for shipment, it is relatively higher here than in the east. We continue to quote prime to choice Roll at 35 to 37.

BEANS—$3,50 to $3.75 per bushel.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Dull at 4c.

CRANBERRIES—$20 to $23 per bbl.

CHEESE—Dull; 15 to 20.

CORNMEAL—$1 to $1,10 per bushel.

CARBON OIL—is firm and higher, and may now be quoted, in a jobbing way, at 27½ to 28, for standard white.

DRESSED HOGS—13 to 14c.

DRIED FRUIT—There is a good local demand for Peaches, at 12 to 13 for quarters, and 16 to17 for halves. Apples unchanged at 10 to 11.

EGGS—Dull at 30c.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm with jobbing sales at 15 for Shoulders, and 19 for Hams. Country Lard, 18 to 18½c and prime city, at 19½ to 20. Mess Pork, $30 to $31.

LARD OIL—Is held firmly, at the advance; $1,35 to $1,38 for No. 2, and $1,63 to $1,65 for No. 1.

POTATOES—Dull and unchanged—73 to 75c on track, and 80 to 85c in store.

SEEDS—Sales of Cloverseed at $8,75 to to $9, and Timothy at $3 to $3,25. Flaxseed may be quoted at $2,30 to $2,35.

SALT—Is still quoted firm at $2 by the car load for Allegheny River brands, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

TALLOW—Rendered, 11 to 11½c.

GRAIN—There is no movement whatever in Wheat, and the market is dull and prices nominal. Oats in rather better demand and firmer though unchanged, 64 to 65c by the car load, and 66 to 68c in store. Corn continues dull, with a supply somewhat in excess of the demand; sales of Shelled at 80 to 82c on track and in elevator. Rye would bring $1,45, while holders are asking $1,50. Barley dull—no demand and little or none offering.

PEANUTS—$1,75 per bushel.

VENISON—Sales of Saddles at 23 to 25c and whole carcas at 8 to 9c.

FEATHERS—Sales to the trade at 80 to 85 for live geese, and 90 to 95, in a retail way.

HAY—Baled is in good supply and dull but unchanged, ranging from $18 to $25, as to quality.

HOMINY—$6,25 to $6,50 per bbl.

MILL FEED—The following are the Pearl Mill prices: Bran, $1,10; Shipstuffs $1,30; Middlings, $2; Screenings, $1, and Rye Shorts, $2.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Flour, and the market is dull and neglected, while prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at $7,50 to $8,00 for Spring, and Winter Wheat $8,75 to $9,25. Rye Flour, $7,75 to $8. The Pearl Mill quote their brands, made of the best Wheat, as follows: Extra Family Flour in barrels, at $9,50, and, in sacks, $9,20 per barrel; Double Extra Family, in barrels $10,20, and, in sacks, $9,90 per barrel Spring Wheat Flour, in barrels, $8,00, and in sacks, $7,70 per barrel. The City Mill quote prices as follows: Extra Family (Winter) in barrels, $9,50, and, in sacks $9,20 per barrel; Double Extra Family, in barrels, $10,00, and, in sacks, $9,70 per barrel, and Spring, $8,00, in barrels, and $7,70, in sacks, per barrel.

WHISKY—Highwines are still quoted in a jobbing way, at 97 to $1.

GROCERIES—The grocery market continues quiet and dull with no important change to note in prices. There seems to be a disposition on the part of merchants to contract the credit system as much as possible, and this, of course, has a tendency to retard business, as money is scarce and collections very difficult. We quote:

SUGARS—Standard Hard, 16¼c; A, 15½ to 15¾c; B, 15¼c; Extra C, 15c. Cube Sugar— 11¾c to 12¾c; Porto Rico, 13 to 13¾c. New Orleans Sugar—choice, 14c prime, 13½; fully fair, 13c; good, 12¾c.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, January 13, 1868.

The long-looked for reaction has not set in yet, and, if anything, the market for both Crude and Refined is wilder and more excited than ever. Prices are no higher than even the most sanguine bull hoped for or expected, and further, the market appears to have got beyond control. Who is there in the trade or out of it, sixty days since ever dreamed of Crude selling in January at sixteen cents or six dollars and a quarter per barrel at Oil City It takes us back to war times when gold was up to 250, and everything else in proportion. Refiners are astonished; speculators stand aghast, and "short sellers" are disgusted. True, it was contended some time since that oil was likely to rule higher in 1869 than it did in 1868, and the argument was supported by the fact that the supply would not be equal to the demand there were many who did not believe it at the time, and there are a few who think even yet, that it is doubtful.

REFINED

There was not a single operation in Refined to-day, at least there were none reported, though the market continues firm and excited, and prices are still tending upward. January was quoted at 33 to 33½ January to March, 33½; January to June 34½; March to June 35, April to December 36. We are also cognizant of an offer to buy a "call" for July to September at 3 and one dollar per bbl, which is considered equivalent to thirty-eight and a half cents.

CRUDE.

The Crude market also continues firm and excited, and a still further advance has been established. The sales were: 2,000 bbls first six months, seller, at 15½; 1,000 bbls spot at 16; 1,000 bbls February, seller at 16; 1,000 January to June at 15½; 1,000 same delivery option, and price: $200 paid for the privilege of placing 1,000 bbls between January and June at 14½, and 1,000 bbls on cars at Oil City at $6,25.

A Woman's Views About Women's Homes.

We hear many good sermons now-a-days from the text that the chief duty of woman is to render home attractive to her husband. No doubt any good wife will make this her crowning pleasure; but where duty is in the question, there is another phase of the matter which is sadly overlooked—the duty of the husband to make home pleasant for his wife. As a very small portion of his waking hours are spent in the house, where his wife's whole life is spent, it would seem quite as important that her convenience and tastes should be consulted as well as his. In their capacity, as head of the family, men think that the ordering of the house naturally belong to them. They build to suit their own taste and convenience, lay out the grounds to suit their own fancy, and manage things generally with some deference to their wife's wishes, it is true, but a great deal more to their own. And sometimes their caprices wofully conflict with the comfort of the household. The home should belong to the wife; she should plan the house, arrange the furniture, lay out the garden, and order all the details. She knows from experience better than all her husband can possibly do, what arrangement best conduces to her housekeeping convenience. It would be just as absurd for her to undertake to be the architect of his warehouse, and to place the desks, drawers, and pigeon-holes of his counting-room, as for him to divine from his omniscience the most convenient spot for her cupboards. In the same manner, if trees are to be cut down or left standing, or flower-beds to be laid out around the house, her taste should be consulted first, for the sight of these things must delight or chafe her all day long, for they are of very little practical consequence to the husband in the evenings, which are his chief time at home. Again, the homestead should belong to the wife in fee simple; she has a right to the nest in which she rears her young, and ought to be assured that it can never be torn from her by those reverses of fortune to which, in this country, all are so liable. Women all feel this, though they are apt to lack the courage to say it; and if their comfort and convenience were once paramount at home, if they were quite certain they could spend to which they are so often advised to confine their aspirations really belonged to them, and was wholly within their control, they would gladly assume the responsibility, and strive with much greater alacrity than they do now to force their husbands to acknowledge the ability of their generalship, and to appreciate the delights of home.—Harper's Bazar.

Work and Wages.

The venerable proverb, "The laborer is worthy of his hire," does not seem to be regarded as anything more than theoretically true. Mechanics, for instance, are among the most dilligent of laborers, but they render more important and valuable services to society for a less pecuniary return than any other class of men. The great mass of these intelligent and faithful laborers scarcely earn more than a scanty living. From some interesting statistics lately published regarding the condition of the working classes of the United States, we learn that the average life of our mechanics is estimated at forty-six and a half years, and the average number of days' work performed in this climate is 250 days in a year. Here is exhibited a a degree of attention to business, not equaled by any other class. Out of 313 working days in a year, only sixty-three are not devoted to the mechanic's trade. These sixty-three days are all that are required (outside of Sunday) for recreation, sickness, pleasure, sport and private business.

The average annual expense of a mechanic in our cities, including board and clothing, is about $300. Estimating the average compensation of such a laborer at three dollars per day, he would earn in the 250 days $750. From this deduct his board and clothing, $300, and he has left but $450 for keeping his family, for amusements, for books, for educational purposes and contingencies. The average working years of a mechanic are estimated at twenty, which would make his gross earnings in a life time, on the basis above named, $15,000.—N. Y. Commercial Bulletin.

Cost of Living in Germany.

A letter from Dresden says: "Gentlemen's clothing cost about half what it does in Providence. The last suit I bought of one of our well known Westminster street tailors was priced at $70. My tailor here furnished me the same quality of goods at $36. An overcoat which in Providence would have cost $70 to $75 was here obtained for $30. Shoes are also cheap. Laced walking boots, such as Rice in Boston or Livingston in Providence will furnish for from $16 to $20, I have here obtained for $6, and been told I paid too much. The best shirts are $2,50 each, and indeed all wearing apparel for gentlemen is exceedingly cheap. Boy's clothing is, of course, proportionably reasonable, and the little backs can be covered and the feet shod here in Dresden for about half what it costs at home. Unfortunately, I cannot give any accurate statements regarding the cost of ladies' articles, but I hear that, while not as cheap as gentlemen's they are yet very reasonable when compared with our home prices. I know, however, that they can revel in new kid gloves, the best of which (German make) can be obtained for $1 per pair, while 75 cents furnishes a capital article. Nearly everything is in Dresden proportionably cheap. A drive in a public hack, to any point in the city can be taken for 12 cents. Good concerts range in price from 10 cents to $1, while a box seat (the best) in the opera is but $1,25.

Around the World.

When Puck promised to put a girdle round the world in forty minutes, he certainly had the telegraph in his "mind's eye" as Hamlet had his father's ghosts. The only difference is that Puck's mental vision is shortly to be made practical, while the spirit of the defunct Dane is still invisible to the multitude. The only breaks in the electric girdle, at the present time, are between a point on Simpson's river, 260 miles southeasterly of Sitka, to a point on the Asiatic coast, 42 degrees N. L., 132 degrees E. L. from Greenwich, a distance of about 2,700 miles, via the Aleutian and Kurile Islands, and one section on the Amour river, for the construction of which all the materials are on the ground. When these are completed, the task is done.

The following bit of fiction is going the rounds of the Southern papers:

"We hear from Florida that Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, the authoress of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," who a year ago bought a place on St. John's river, near Jacksonville, says she wants to live long enough to write another book to correct the mistake of "Uncle Tom," and show that a great blunder was committed when slavery was abolished. From her original condition of sentimental attachment to the negro she has lapsed into a state of unconquerable dislike and aversion. She will not have them about her, either in-doors or out. She turned them all off her place, and allows no one with a black skin to approach her. We are told that an acquaintance of ours sought to send her a message by a black stewardess on board a steamboat, but she refused to allow the negro to approach her."

The Cockatrice.

A correspondent of the London Field asks, "Can any one tell me what a cockatrice is, such as we read of in the Bible and in old legends?" To which the editor of that journal replies: "The cockatrice of the Bible is a very different thing from the fabulous creature of which we read in legends and heraldic books. It is a great misfortune that our venerable translators of the Scriptures put in several places the names of imaginary creatures where the sacred writers speak of real ones. These errors are of course due to the slender knowledge of natural history which was current when the English version of the Bible was made. Cockatrice is the proper name of an imaginary flying reptile, the off-spring of a cock and a serpent. The figure assigned to it in heraldy may be seen in works on that subject. It was supposed to have the power of killing by means of its breath, or even by its look, and hence we read in Shakespeare of 'the death-darting eye of cockatrice.'"

With regard to the Biblical animals a few times called cockatrice in our version, there is some difficulty. In the first place two Hebrew words are so rendered, and therefore two different kinds of reptiles may be meant. There is the word Tziphoni, out of which the Greeks concocted the monsters, Typhon and Tisiphone. This occurs in Isa. xi. 8, lix. Jer. viii. 17, as "cockatrice;" whereas in Prov. xxiii. 32, it is translated "adder." A shorter term of the word tzepah, appears as "cockatrice," in Isa. xiv. 29. The word epha, also, for which "viper" is put in the text, id once represented in the margin by "cockatrice." To know what has been said about these words, recourse must be made to some good Bible Dictionary, or to such a work as the excellent "Natural History of the Bible," by Mr. Tristram. Mr. Tristram thinks the great yellow viper is the reptile indicated; others that it is the sand viper, &c. There is no doubt that the Hebrew terms denote venomous serpents, and that the names are descriptive of their hissing, but how to identify them with any particular species is one of the many difficult problems in Biblical zoology."

Steel Rails Not a Success.

The use of steel, instead of iron, for the rails of railroads, has not been productive of the saving which was at first expected of it. The surface of the steel rail is indeed harder, and therefore wears better than iron; but steel has not the tough, fibrous character of iron, and in frosty weather it breaks with alarming ease. Then, although the first cost of steel is nearly double that of iron, old steel rails sell for little or nothing, while old iron rails are worth half the price of new. Taking all these facts into account, it is found to be cheaper to lay down good iron rails than steel ones, except in the vicinity of stations where there is a great deal of friction from the frequent breaking up of trains, and but little rapid movement. Experiments are, however, being made, and with considerable success, to manufacture an iron rail with a steel top, so as to combine the toughness and cheapness of iron with the hard wearing surface of steel.

THE Chatanooga Republican says: Yesterday afternoon, about half-past four o'clock Mr. King was sitting in the dining room of his residence, corner of Fourth and Market streets, engaged cleaning and repairing his rifle. His sister came into the room, when he told her he would have to take his gun to the smith's to have it repaired. She then left him and joined her sister, Mrs. Crutchfield, who invited Miss King to accompany her shopping. While preparing themselves for the walk they heard the report of the fatal gun, but supposed that it was a chair which had fallen over. When they were ready to start Miss King told her sister that she never left the house without first informing her brother, and proceeded to tell him that she was going out. She opened the door and observed him laying on the sofa, with his gun by his side, but supposed that he had merely fallen asleep. She called his name but received no answer. She called a second and third time, but alas! no answer. The report of the gun, which she had supposed to be the falling of a chair, was comprehended—her brother was dead—had killed himself accidentally.

EXPERIMENTS have recently been tried in the machine shops of the Western Railroad, in Paris, in the new art of welding iron by pressure instead of by a hammer on an anvil. It was found that union of the two masses of iron was effected only superficially by means of the hammer, but that a continued steady pressure had a far greater effect in producing a thorough junction. Among other experiments, two iron bars, 1½ inches in diameter, were heated to the welding point and brought under the hydraulic press. The welding was effected with extraordinary quickness, the fibres of the iron being thoroughly reticulated with each other. The joined portion of the bars was quite as strong as anywhere else. A microscopic section of the joint showed a perfectly homogeneous texture.

FUSIL OIL, of which so much is said in connection with the liquor adulterations, is a liquid colorless when pure, of offensive smell and burning taste, obtained by continuing in fermentation in the distilling process after the alcholic portion is drawn off. Its action upon the animal system is that of a positive posion, its vapor producing nausea, headache, and giddiness. Its presence in liquors is highly injurious, and indicates bad distillation or the use of damaged grain. It may be detected by agitating the liquor with water and leaving it stand for the oil to raise to the surface. One ounce of fusil oil kills a rabbit in four minutes.

LOUIS NAPOLEON is evidently seriously alarmed at the disaffection now prevalent in France, since the Independence Belge of Brussels, of December 10th, was seized on the frontiers for containing too many particulars of the preparations made in Paris to resist an expected popular demonstration on December 3d, the anniversary of the coup d'etat.

Committed.—Alderman Thomas yesterday committed Isaac Pope for trial, on an information for surety of the peace, preferred against him by Roberta Pope, his wife.

All the Trains on the different railroads leading into the city arrived at the Union Depot on time yesterday, notwithstandidg the heavy fall of snow along the lines of travel.

All day long yesterday and into the "wee sma hours a'yont the twal" the merry jingle of sleigh bells resounded through our streets and along the principal thoroughfares leading from the cities.

Allegheny Councils.—The last meeting of the Allegheny Councils, as at present constituted, will be held this evening, in their chambers, at seven o'clock. The new Councils will be organized to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

The Sunday Liquor Law.—Martha Robinson yesterday charged Garnett Phalon, of the Twelfth ward, with violating the Sunday liquor law by selling liquors at his saloon on Penn street, Twelfth ward, on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10th, 1869. Alderman Taylor issued a warrant for the arrest of the accused.

Threatened Her.—Catharine Anderson alleges that her husband, Shepley Anderson, threatened to strike her, accompanying the threat with sundry hostile demonstrations which makes her in constant fear of violence at his hands. The parties reside in the Third ward. Alderman McMasters issued a warrant for the arrest of Shepley.

Rescued.—Yesterday morning a lad named Morris, aged about ten years, while playing on some barges tied to the shore near the Hand street bridge, on the Allegheny river, fell into the water, and would have been drowned but for the timely assistance of Officer Reddy, who heard his cries, and running out upon the barges succeeded in rescuing him.

Train Wrecked.—Tuesday afternoon a coal train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, belonging to C. H. Armstrong & Co., was wrecked near Braddocks Station, by the breaking of a car axle. Eleven cars were more or less damaged. The accident caused the regular trains to be delayed, and eastern trains did not arrive at the Union Depot until several hours after they were due. No person was injured.

Mayor Blackmore desires to return his thanks to the citizens for their promptness in complying with the order in relation to cleaning the sidewalks after the recent snow storm. The order was generally complied with, we believe, throughout the city, and as a consequence the sidewalks are in a much better condition than they would have been had the snow been allowed to remain upon them.

Omission.—In our report of Common Council proceedings, in yesterday's GAZETTE, it should have been stated, in reference to the question of the eligibility of John McClaren, Esq., of the Fifth ward, as a member, submitted by him, that an opinion from the City Solicitor was read, to the effect that the fact of Mr. McClaren having been appointed Notary Public did not disqualify him from serving as a Councilman, whereupon, on motion, he was duly sworn.

Annual Meeting.—The annual meeting of contributors to the Western Pennsylvania Hospital will be held at Dixmont this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The reports of the various officers for the past year will be submitted and a Board of Managers elected to serve for the ensuing year. Trains will leave the Allegheny Depot of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad at 10:15 and 11:45 A. M. and 1:20 P. M. for the place. Persons desirous of visiting the wards of the hospital should take one of the two morning trains mentioned.

Pardoned.—At the August term, 1866, of the United States District Court, John Haggerty was convicted of counterfeiting, but sentence was deferred and he was remanded to jail, where he has since been shut up until yesterday, when he was released upon a pardon signed by the President, dated January 8, 1869. The pardon was issued by the President on the recommendation of the Board of Prison Inspectors, Gen. J. K. Moorhead, R. B. Carnahan, Esq., and other prominent citizens of this vicinity. It has been developed since the trial that Haggerty was the tool of others, and his conduct in the prison during two years and six months he was confined there, has been very exemplary, and gave evidence of a more correct deportment for the future.

Slight Lapsus.

In our notice of the accident on the Pan Handle road, yesterday, we stated that Mr. J. B. Dorrington, the efficient "General Ticket Agent" of the Company was promptly at the scene of the occurrence with a force sufficient to render all necessary aid. Mr. Dorrington, who has been long and well known here as a faithful and successful railroad official, is the General Agent of the Company, and has his office on Seventh avenue. S. F. Scull, Esq., who is one of the most genial of gentlemen, and at the same time an officer of superior ability, is the General Ticket Agent of the road, and has his office in Steubenville. We regret that he removed his headquarters from this city, as we would like to meet him more frequently and enjoy the smiles of his bland and genial countenance.

Fire at an Oil Refinery.

Yesterday morning at about ten o'clock the oil in one of the stills at the "Empire" oil refinery, on Herr's Island, caught fire and was consumed. An alarm was struck from Box 64, but it was received at the different engine houses in such a confused manner that the engines were some time in reaching the place. The fire is said to have been caused by a leak in the still, which permitted a stream of oil to flow into the furnace. There was about seventy-five barrels of oil in the still, which burned quite fiercely for a time, but, fortunately, it was kept under control and prevented from setting fire to the remainder of the works. The furnace and engine were considerably damaged by the water and heat, and will probably have to be replaced. The refinery is owned by Messrs. Miller and Fulton, who have had possession of it but a short time. They do not as yet know their loss, but estimate it as inconsiderable. That portion of the works destroyed was not insured.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENT.

Public Institutions — The Magistrates—Whisky License—Police Court—Railroad Crossings.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Allegheny: December Sessions, 1868:

In accordance with the custom of Grand Juries previous to their final adjournment, the Grand Inquest respectfully submit their presentment relating to such matters as seem to them to affect the public welfare.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.

And among these we regard the public institutions in the county as deserving a prominent position. Several of them have been visited by the Inquest during their session—the Work House, House of Refuge, Insane Asylum at Dixmont, the County Home and the County Jail.

With regard to the Work House, we have visited and examined that portion of it now under contract, and we find that the Directors have displayed great taste and excellent judgment in the selection of a location. A copious and excellent spring of pure water, situated on an elevation in the rear of the building, is of sufficient capacity to supply the institution with fresh and wholesome water for all necessary purposes, and, in a sanitary point of view, worth more perhaps than the price of the ground. The foundation of the building is of large, solid stone, and is skilfully and substantially built. The arrangement and location of the cells, and the general ventilation of the building meets with our decided approval. We congratulate the Prison Board on their selection of the gentlemen comprising the Board of Directors, who, together with the Superintendent, have diligently and faithfully performed their duties, and deserve the thanks of the people. And in consideration of the pressing wants of such an institution in our midst, we would earnestly recommend the early completion of the building.

We visited the House of Refuge and found the institution in good working order. The discipline of the boys and girls is remarkably good. The buildings are all clean and neat, particularly the sleeping rooms. We are not prepared to speak of the productive capacity of the House, but from a superficial view of the inmates and workshops, we believe it is carefully and economically managed.

Dixmont Hospital for the insane was visited by the inquest, and we are prepared to speak in high terms of its general management. The rooms, wards and halls are scrupulously neat and clean, and the ventilation perfect. The inmates are well cared for and enjoy all the liberties and privileges of which their unhappy condition will permit. The institution is an honor and a credit to our part of the State.

On our visit to the County Home we found it in a very prosperous condition. The unfortunate recipients of the charity of the county are all neat and clean and they all seem perfectly satisfied with their treatment, showing conclusively that the institution is well and properly managed.

The County Jail at the time of our visit was found to be in a very crowded condition, too much so indeed for the comfort and welfare of the occupants. This evil we confidently hope will be remedied by the early completion of the work-house. Its management, taking into consideration the great number confined therein at this season of the year, is all that could be desired.

THE LICENSE LAWS.

We have noticed during our deliberations the frequent violations of the license laws, and also the excessive number of persons engaged in the business of retailing liquors, and in relation to the granting of license for such retailing, we would strongly urge as an amendment to our present laws an act to compel all signers to petitions for license for the sale of spirituous, malt and vinous liquors to be examined under oath, at the time of filing the petitions, as to whether the applicant has all the accommodations required by law, and that the present eating house system be abolished.

OUR MAGISTRATES.

There is another matter that has come under our observation during our session, and that is the great amount of litigation created by magistrates, who entertain and send to Court cases that have no foundation, either in law or fact, and thereby entail costs on the unhappy suitors, who are frequently unable to pay them, and they are in many cases paid by the county, and many such parties, not being able to procure bail, are sent to jail to answer charges which, when inquired into, are found to be groundless. The office of Alderman or Justice of the Peace in the olden time was filled by men of the best standing in the county, and the offices soon were considered posts of honor and trust; but they are now, with some few exceptions, filled by men whose sole desire is to make money, and whose ignorance is only equalled by their dishonesty. To remedy this, if it would not conflict with one of the provisions of the Constitution of the Commonwealth, we would suggest that persons learned in the law, and of character and experience, be elected triennially and have a jurisdiction the same as that now exercised by our present Aldermen, and be paid a liberal salary, and have, say four, located at four principal points in the city of Pittsburgh and two in the city of Allegheny, with power to appoint clerks, whose duty it would be to keep a record of all cases tried before such officer and make a monthly return of all costs collected to the county, and pay over the same to the county. And that in the boroughs and townships the number of Justices be reduced to one for each borough or township, and that the compensation of such Justices shall be the same as that now provided by law, and that the present system be abolished.

POLICE COURT.

The subject of a Police Court having been suggested to us for consideration, we, after deliberation upon the subject, are of opinion that such court could not be established unless a grand and traverse jury are connected therewith, and the effect of this would be to transfer the costs of the Court of Quarter Sessions from the county to the city, thereby entailing on the city onerous taxation without adequate return. That the establishment of a Police Court, such as contemplated, is not demanded by public necessity, as the Courts already established can transact all business brought before them, and the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions have, by law, the power to summon grand and traverse juries whenever, in their opinion, the business of the Court may require.

NUISANCES.

We would recommend further that the authorities of the city and county be requested to repress the nuisances created by railroad cars by stopping on the crossings of the public streets, to the great inconvenience of our citizens.

COMPLIMENTARY.

In closing our labors we must express our thanks to J. B. Flack, Esq., and his efficient assistant, John G. McConnell, Esq., for the careful and attentive manner that they have attended to the wants of the Grand Jury and the interests of the county, and we congratulate the people of the county on their selection of so able and efficient an officer.

This presentment, in connection with our special presentment presented a few days since, closes the business of the present Grand Inquest of the county.

Most respectfully submitted,

JOHN HEATH, Foreman.

Newly Elected Board of Managers.

A meeting of the Managers of the House of Refuge was held yesterday at their office, 67 Fourth avenue, for the purpose of organizing the Standing Committees, fixing of salaries, electing officers, &c. The following members were present:

From Allegheny County—William Dilworth, John Phillips, Calvin Adams, G. L. B. Fetterman, W. A. Herron, Joseph Kirkpatrick, W. W. Patrick, Josiah King, John E. Parke, F. C. Negley, Thomas Wightman, James Schoonmaker, W. D. Rhinehart, C. Yeager, T. J. Bigham, J. B. D. Meeds.

Beaver County—Samuel J. Cross.

Washington County—Samuel R. Weirick.

Lawrence County—Rev. Robt. McMillen.

William Dilworth, President, in the chair, J. B. D. Meeds, Secretary.

The following Standing Committees for 1869 were constituted:

Finance—Jos. Kirkpatrick, W. A. Herron, Calvin Adams, John E. Parke, Thos. Wightman.

Indenturing—B. L. Fahnestock, J. B. D. Meeds, Joseph Woodwell.

Instruction and Discipline—Jas. Schoonmaker, J. B. D. Meeds, B. Yeager, Jno. Phillips, Josiah King.

Industry—J. M. Cooper, C. Adams, G. L. B. Fetterman, W. W. Patrick, F. C. Negley.

The salaries of the past year were adopted for this, except in two cases where a small increase was agreed to.

All the officers and teachers were re-elected, except that Dr. W. Heslep was elected physician in place of Dr. Grouard.

There was considerable discussion on various topics connected with the Refuge, but, except the foregoing, very little business was transacted. Major Negley gave notice that at the next quarterly meeting of the Board he would call up his proposed amendment of the first article of the second section of the rules, so as to dispense with the Executive Committee and remit its duties to the whole Board.

The Committee on Industry and Discipline were instructed to investigate and report whether the number of officers and teachers might not, without prejudice, be diminished.

A Select Committee was, we believe, appointed to investigate, with a view to retrenchment, in the cost of supplies.

It is noteworthy that the estimable and talented Superintendent, Rev. R. N. Avery, was unanimously re-elected to the arduous and responsible office which hitherto he has filled with distinguished honor to himself and great advantage and credit to this admirable institution.

The Lane Murder Case.

Lewis Lane, who has been twice tried and convicted of the murder of his wife, Henrietta Lane, by means of poison, has not yet been executed, and, it appears, will not be if his counsel can prevent it. He was certainly fortunate in having such counsel assigned him, as he could not have employed men who would have labored more faithfully to save his life had he possessed the wealth of Rothchilds. The following motion for a new trial, and in arrest of judgment and reasons were filed in the Court of Quarter Sessions on Tuesday:

Commonwealth vs. Lewis Lane, No. — June Sessions, 1869. Murder. And now to-wit: January 12, 1869, prisoner's counsel enters a motion for a new trial, and in arrest of judgment, and assigns therefor the following reasons, viz:

REASONS.

I. Because the Court erred in overruling the demurr to indictment, which was defective.

1. In that it did not aver that death ensued within a year and a day after the assault there being no allegation of the time, where or place, when the assault was committed, which was alleged to have caused death.

2. In that it did not aver that the killing was done with a specific intent to kill or set purpose to take life.

II. Because the Court erred in compelling the prisoner to go to trial without endorsing the name of prosecutor on the indictment.

Death of a Catholic Priest.

We are pained to announce this morning the death of Rev. John Stoepel, which occurred yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, at his residence on Washington street, Third ward, Allegheny.

The deceased had been suffering for about five weeks past with lung disease, for which the usual remedies failed to procure permanent relief. Last Sabbath he was revived somewhat and his physician had some hopes of his recovery, but on Tuesday afternoon he was again prostrated by a severe attack for hemorrhage, which resulted in his death. Rev. Stoepel had exercised a pastoral care over the congregation worshiping in the Catholic Church, on Washington street, for nearly eighteen years, and was much beloved and esteemed by his parishioners and the community in which he labored.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The largest audience of the week assembled last night at the Opera House to see Mr. and Miss Couldock in "Dora." The entertainment was a most excellent one and was fully appreciated by the entire audience. To-night the domestic drama entitled "Doing for the Best" will be presented, and the entertainment will conclude with "Naval Engagements." To-morrow night Mr. and Miss Couldock take a final benefit.

THEATRE.—The Gregory combination troupe, which is so eminently popular in this city continues to delight the public at the Old Theatre, with wonderful gymnastic and acrobatic feats, and to amuse the people with the minature circus, trained dogs, etc. The entertainment is an excellent one, and we are pleased to know that it is highly appreciated.

MISS KELLOGG'S CONCERT.—The concert at the Academy of Music last evening was beyond question the grandest musical entertainment of the season. The high reputation Miss Kellogg has attained in her profession, was sufficient of itself to attract all lovers of music, and as there are always a large number of persons who attend such entertainments because it is fashionable to do so, the consequence was that the Academy was filled with the elite of the city, and the most appreciative audience, perhaps, which have assembled in the city during the present season.

The concert was of a highly satisfactory character throughout, the entire troupe having talent of a very high order, and some of them evincing rare cultivation. Lotti and Petrilli, baratone and tenore, are both fine musicians and M'lle Topp manipulates the keys of the piano, with an ease and grace seldom attained by any one. While Herr Kopia as a violinist, has few equals. The attraction of the evening, however, was Miss Clara Louise Kellogg, the American Prima Donna. Miss Kellogg possesses a soprano voice of great compass, sufficiently strong and of the richest sweetness. Her articulation is clear and distinct, upon the low notes as well as the higher ones, consequently each syllable is pronounced with the same degrees of distinctness and accuracy, no matter whether it was upon the higher or lower notes. She dresses with exceedingly good taste, and is as modest as she is handsome. Her manner on the stage as well as her singing is indicative of the true artist, and creates a favorable impression upon her audieace. Her hearers were doubtless prepared for a rich treat last night, but the feast far exceeded their expectation, and she carried the house by storm with her first performance, and was called front of the scenes the third time. On the first encore she sang "Sweet Home." This, and "Beware, oh! Beware," which was also an encore, were the gems of the evening, and were long and heartily applauded by the delighted audience.

The concert to-night will doubtless equal that of last night in brilliancy, and those who are so fortunate as to have secured seats for the occasion may prepare for a rich repast in the musical line.

Miss Kellogg occupies a high position in her profession, and has attained to greater celebrity in the musical world than any other lady at her age, a fact of which every American should feel proud.

ORPHAN'S FAIR.—The Orphans' Fair continues to attract many visitors, and no wonder, for it is a very pleasant place to spend a few leisure hours. The voting is spirited and will soon draw to a close. The Cathedral brass band is nightly in attendance.

Pittsburgh Male and Female Seminary.

Among the best of the educational institutions of which Pittsburgh is so justly proud, Prof. Gourley's Male and Female Seminary takes a front rank. Though established but a comparatively short time it has rapidly advanced in favor with parents desiring finished educations for their children, until now it stands confessedly one of the most popular schools in our vicinity. For an evidence of the estimation in which it is held, the roll of scholars at present in attendance number seventy, forty in the misses department and thirty in the youth's, which furnish the best proof. The course of study pursued also recommends it to the attention of all. Experienced and competent educators in all the branches taught in a first class Seminary or College are employed as instructors, and the general proficiency of those in attendance attests the success which has marked their instructions heretofore.

In addition to the regular course, pupils may, if desiring, persue the study of some of the higher branches, such as German, French, &c. The next session of the Seminary comences February 1st, 1869, and continues six months, but persons intending to enter should apply sooner, as only a limited number of pupils will be taken.

A class for ladies engaged in teaching will be formed next Saturday, January 16, at two o'clock, to continue until the commencement of the teachers' examination. All the usual branches will be taught in this class, which is designed especially for teachers. Any further information in regard to classes, terms, &c., may be obtained on application at the rooms of the Seminary, Nos. 22 and 24 Fifth avenue. We can heartily recommend the institution, and advise those interested to call and examine its merits.

We clip the following from the Erie Dispatch:

PERSONAL.—The United States Court naturally attracts a large number of influential men here at each session, and its personnel thereof becomes a matter of interest.

The Hon. Wilson McCandless, United States Judge, has had many encomiums passed upon him for his ability, courtesy and an inexhaustable vein of the keenest humor, which sometimes scintillates when least expected. Of his son, S. C. McCandless, Esq., the able clerk of the United States District Court, we can say that we have never met a more obliging official, and our thanks are due for repeated favors in regard to the procurement of news with reference to the affairs of the Court.

Here we may remark, that without an exception, the officers of this Court have, so far as we know, treated reporters with a uniform courtesy, and a willingness to oblige, that public men in general would do well to imitate.

United States Attorney Carnahan has achieved a reputation second to none, for fidelity to the Government, shrewdness as a counsellor, and the fairness with which the claims of his opponents are treated. An unjustly arrainged defendant need fear nothing at his hands, though he gets terribly in earnest when broken laws need vindication.

Gen. Rowley, U. S. Marshal, is also a very popular and efficient officer. He was appointed to his present position about two years since, for a term of four years, and whether the "Tenure of Office" bill be abolished or not, it is scarcely probable that his term of service will be shortened by any cause foreseen at present. Maj. Geo. W. Murphy, his principal Deputy, generally accompanies him here, but we miss him at this term, the increase of business being such that Gen. Rowley has been compelled to leave him at the principal office in Pittsburgh, to take charge of the business during his absence, and Maj. Murphy's place is well filled here by Col. Jos. Brown, chief clerk. Maj. Murphy is a courteous and obliging officer, and the best test of his ability, is the implicit trust placed in it by one who knows him so thoroughly as does his Chief—Gen. Rowley.

Lecture.—Mr. John B. Gough will deliver his second lecture before the Mercantile Library Association on Saturday evening next at the Academy, on "Temperance," and his third one on Monday evening next on "Habit." Reserve seats for both occasions may be obtained at Lafayette Hall on Friday evening at half past seven o'clock.

Alleged Wife Desertion.

Hannah Schriner called at the Allegheny Mayor's office yesterday morning and made information against her husband, Charles Schriner, for desertion. She stated that they had been married for a number of years, and during that time had lived happily and agreeably together. Last Monday morning the husband rose at an early hour and disappeared before breakfast. His wife becoming tired of waiting for his return sat down to the repast alone, but had hardly been seated when a boy rapped at the door, and upon having his summons answered placed in her hands a letter. The missive was signed by her husband, and was to the purport that he had concluded to dissolve the marriage relation between them and would hereafter "paddle his own canoe." She was further advised to place the children, of which there were four, in the Home for the Friendless, and then look around for herself, and make the best of circumstances.

Astounded and amazed beyond measure, the wife at first thought the transaction a forgery or mistake, but as the hours rolled away and no Charles made his appearance, she was compelled to adopt the conclusion so forcibly expressed in the letter, Acting upon the advice given, the first step she took in "looking round for herself" was to call at the Mayor's office and make the information as mentioned. She states that she is at present occupying the house, in the Fourth ward, where her husband disappeared from, and is in very destitute circumstances. She had no quarrel with him previous to his departure and had not the slightest idea of his intentions until the receipt of the letter. She thinks he is still loitering around the city and is anxious that he may be apprehended before his final departure. We give her statements in substance as they were made, without presuming to doubt their truth or endorsing them in any manner. After hearing the story Mayor Drum issued a warrant for the accused and placed it in the hands of an officer.

Sharpsburg Borough Election.

EDITORS GAZETTE: Our election here yesterday resulted in favor of the Democrats by a large majority. Much dissatisfaction was created by the Council of last year, in reference to finances, surveying, etc., and it is necessary, perhaps, that the Union party should learn wisdom by what they suffer. The new Burgess elect is a Republican, but in order to counteract certain influences which he thought would have an injurious effect upon the prosperity of the borough, he saw fit to run on the Democratic ticket. The following is the ticket elect for the ensuing year:

Burgess—Th. H. Gibson.
Council—Jerome Raum, Peter Prager, Louis Mihlheiszler, Gottleib Wertz, Joseph Hart.
Justice of the Peace—F. A. Klein, Sr.
School Directors—A. Kelley, 3 years, Th. H. Gibson, 3 years, M. A. Bennett, 1 year.
Judge of Elections—William Smith.
Inspector—R. L. Kelley.
Return Inspector—J. F. Scroth.
Assessor—A. McNamara.
Constable—Joseph Conner.
Borough Auditor—R. L. Kelley, 3 years.

A Great Invention.

Messrs. Collins & Wright, 139 Second avenue, announce that they are now prepared to furnish tinners with their very valuable patent self-sealing Fruit Can Top. It is perfect, simple and cheap, having the names of the various fruits stamped upon the cover, radiating from the center, and an index or pointer stamped upon the top of the can. It is clearly, distinctly and permanently labelled by merely placing the name of the fruit the can contains opposite the pointer and sealing in the customary manner. Its merits proclaim themselves to all on examination, and after using it once the housekeeper will have no other. We commend the firm having the sale of this valuable invention in charge to our readers as gentlemen eminently worth public confidence.

How often do you hear the complaint from mother and father that their son or daughter is not well; that they have no appetite; that they feel languid; that their head aches; that they are growing thin and feeble, and that they have no life or energy left. That they are low-spirited, and perfectly incapacitated to participate in any pleasures, or perform any mental or physical duty. And the question is often asked, what shall I do for them? or, what shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try PLANTATION BITTERS moderately three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.
